

*The Bay Area Doll Club 2025 Convention
Presents a Post-Convention Seminar:
“Lily”, Paris 1895*

In this 3-day post-convention seminar, you will construct a c.1895 couture evening gown designed and taught by Jeffrey Cook of Maison Jeffrey, from an exclusive kit provided as the Convention Souvenir gift.

The costume will be specifically designed for “Lily”, an elegant 19” lady doll. Details of this wonderful artist doll will follow.

Cost $350

A deposit of $200 is required by Sept. 15th to secure your seat and is non-refundable. Seating is limited so register early.

More information and a supply list will be forthcoming closer to the seminar.

Please be sure to book your hotel room to include the seminar days. Your room is available for the additional 3 days at the convention rate but must be booked for those days before the seminar begins to obtain the special hotel rate.

We look forward to seeing you for this special event!
